Fund Drive Now at 90%; Ask Completion by July 31

The drive for funds for our Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team is chugging right along, with the Goldenrod Envelopes trickling in daily, and the sunrise in the East for the boys on the Team is getting brighter and brighter.

Due to several unexpected calls the boys on the team who are responsible for the tabulating of the mail have been running slightly behind and at the present time it is impossible to give you any kind of complete picture whatsoever, but we do know to date we have received and deposited $3,614.20, this is a little over 90 per cent of the minimum that has been received.

Members of the Team announced this week that they must end the drive on July 31 so they can settle down, order their much needed equipment and be ready for the response that is sure to come with the warmer weather.

They are sincerely asking those who have laid their envelopes aside to please send them in as soon as possible. There are several items of bigger equipment that they want to purchase to make rescue more sure, and these items are quite expensive and they do not want to take money needed for boots, rope and necessary equipment. So please do hurry, and a million thanks.

Contributors so far in the drive are listed below, the new ones from this week only are listed. If you are downtown and want to save the price of a stamp you may drop your Goldenrod envelope in at the Sierra Madre News Office, the headquarters for the Fund Drive for your Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team.

Those contributing $30 or more and have had added to their contributions $25 by one other contributor are:

MOUNTAIN LAND UP FOR REZONING

Castaway Restaurant Proposed For Site Owned By Jean Liliano In S.M.

by R. Robert Evans

Chambers at City Hall are expected to be jammed to the hilt Thursday evening, July 17 at the hour of 8, when Jean Liliano makes application to the Planning Commission for a request of rezoning from Conditional Use Permit zone (CUP) to Commercial.

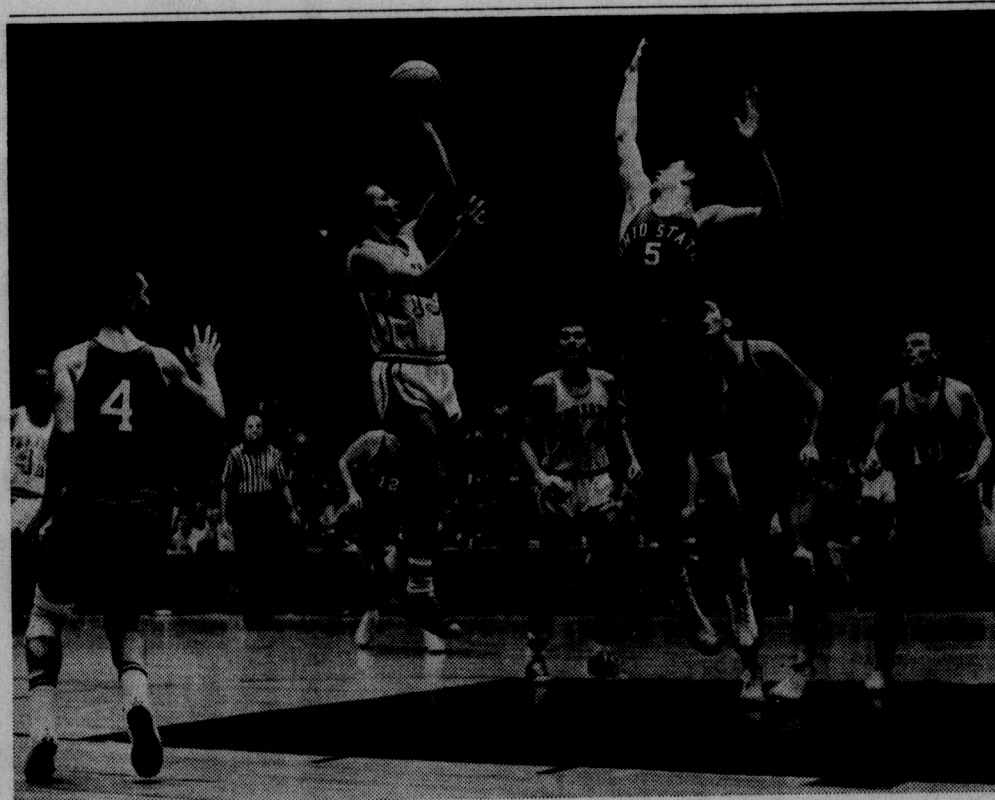

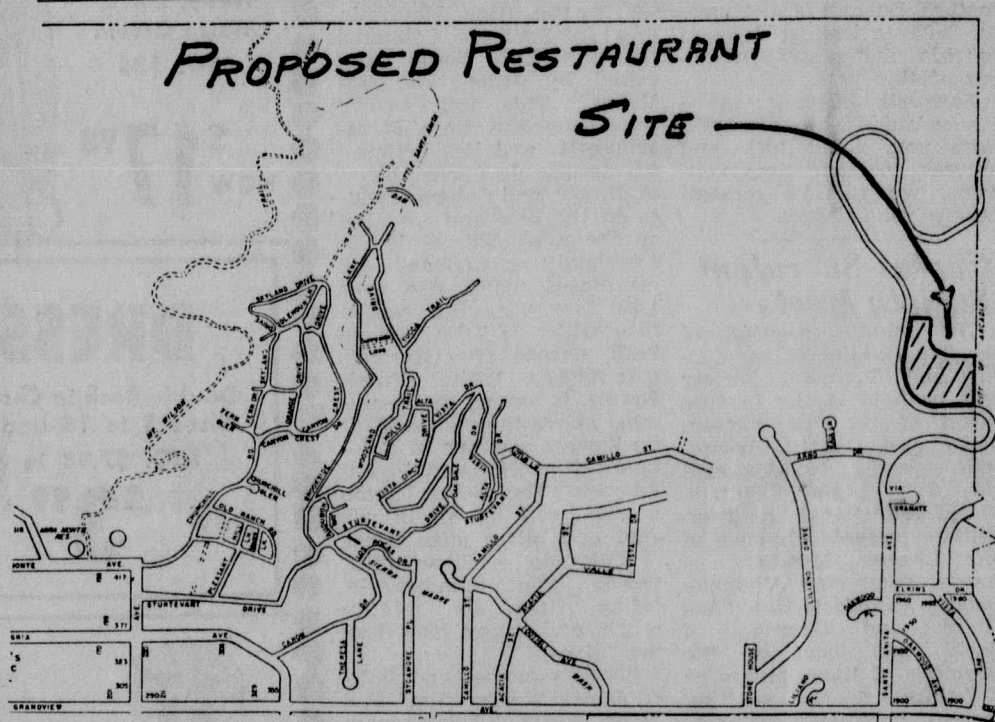

A mountain side restaurant proposed for the mountainous land just inside the Sierra Madre city limits, but overlooking the more fashionable sections of Arcadia Highland Oaks, and Sierra Madre's Liliano Tract is causing the people of both areas to hit the trail of numerous eruptions.

Jean Liliano, who once proposed a development on the side of the San Gabriel mountains immediately north of Arcadia and Sierra Madre proposes to cut and fill part of the mountain as a site for a restaurant to be known as the Castaway.

Mr. Liliano will appear before the Sierra Madre Planning Commission Thursday evening, July 17, at the hour of 8 requesting the zone change. He owns most of the mountains along Chantry Plats Road up to the National Forest and has submitted a plot plan that calls for the use of three acres on the east side of what is officially known as the Santa Anita Canyon Road in an area where there is little level ground. The property is more commonly known as the Lannan Debris Basin.

Liliano's project includes a parking lot located about 85 feet above homes developed by George Elkins. The fact that his entrance would come up suddenly around the second hair pin curve on the route to Chantry Plats Road.

Sierra Madreans Farewell To Justo Caffi And Family

Roger Walker, right, new systems manager for Foothill Cable T.V. presents plaque to Justo Caffi, General Manager, at his farewell dinner July 7th at the Northwood's Inn, Pasadena. Sierra Madre dignitaries were present for the dinner and presentation.

by R. ROBERT EVANS

Sierra Madre is truly losing a good man; a man of integrity and prestige; a man who came to Sierra Madre in December of 1965 and quickly entered the hearts of every man and woman in our city, and this man is none other than Justo Caffi, a position that has become very valuable to Chamber through suggestion and work of Justo.

During the time that Justo Caffi has been in Sierra Madre he has accomplished much for the Chamber of Commerce, a position that has become very valuable to Chamber through suggestion and work of Justo.

Justo Caffi is leaving Sierra Madre for Europe as he severs his connections with Foothill Cable T.V. on July 15 and his family expect to be on their way about July 20, where he will be affiliated with International Affairs of Cable T.V.

Firefighters Serve Without Any Thoughts Of Selves

THE QUIET PEOPLE
(The Unsung — Our Own Heroes)

By
Gifford Pinchot Bowers

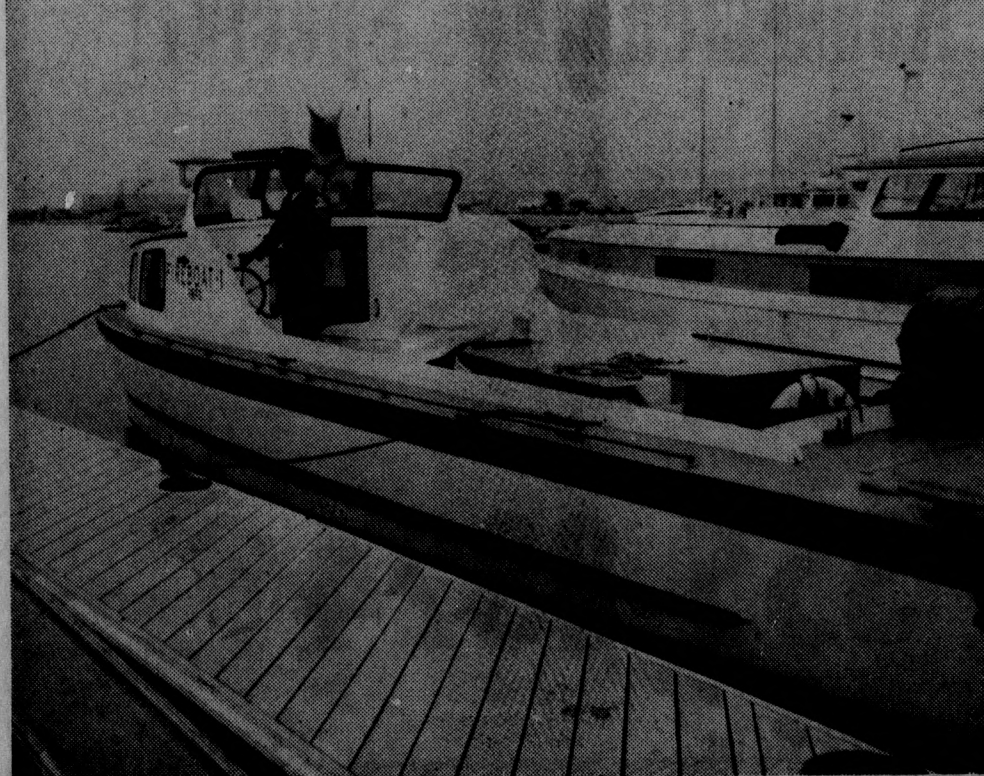

There are many things the average citizen takes for granted... things that if deficient would certainly be noticed. Many of these things and services we take for granted are very important indeed — both to life, property, community, state and country. Services like these do not just happen, nor are they operated by computer machines. Services like these ARE the men, the unsung heroes, who make the service and who do their jobs, what is expected of them and then some, and often give their lives expecting nothing in return except the satisfaction of a job well-done, of lives saved that perhaps would have otherwise been lost, or valuable resources protected. There are many such services, each doing a fine job, but the service of which we are specifically speaking is that of the Firefighters.

Along with the fact that the average citizen takes this protection for granted, is the fact that they often do not see beneath the impersonal word, "Firefighter." Men from all kinds of backgrounds, with all kinds of talents make up this brave breed, but above all, they are human — with families.

7 Fire Calls For the Week

Your Sierra Madre Volunteer Firefighters were called into service by Plectron Radio for their 43 full response on Thursday, July 10 at the hour of 9:53.

Engine 424 arrived at the scene of the call in 2 minutes 49 seconds to find that Mrs. Diane Canova smelled smoke and believed it to be electrical in her home at 260 North Grove.

Complete investigation by department officers disclosed a short circuit.

Well, I guess the dilemma of the "Violin Spider" has just about run its course, seems that the news media and the television networks have milked the situation dry, anyway it gave our City Administrator and his secretary a lot of publicity, as well as the City of Sierra Madre.

Sure is funny how things like that catch on and hold and hold and hold. The first day that it was announced to the news media, some of them seemed to make fun of the situation, then all of a sudden it got quite serious... then it got damn serious.

We have had occasion to receive many reprinted articles from all over the United States about the spider, some of them were ridiculous, such as "Killer Spider Invades Sierra Madre, California." After reading the article you could just visualize what the people of that area must have thought.

Here is this small town of Sierra Madre, with Spiders marching down main street each with a violin on its back... Some of those eastern and midwestern cities still remember when the big gangs in Chicago and Kansas City used to carry machine guns in violin cases.

We had one Radio and Television Station in Seattle, Washington call us and ask just how much of our town had been evacuated... well, all in all it was quite a time to go through... it could only happen in Sierra Madre, the Unique little city in California, suburbia of Los Angeles.

At the present time, with typewriter ready and hot, we are anxiously awaiting the next episode in the life of Sierra Madreans... will it be the Roberts Market Caper, the dilemma of a new restaurant in the residential area.

Could it be a new City Administrator, or a revised "Program of Services" for the city to suit the taste of the City Council... could be that we will have to wait for an entirely new Council, but we seriously doubt most of this... Sierra Madre and Sierra Madreans do not stand around for long, before things start happening, you can just feel it in the hot summer air.

According to my calendar school has been out for thirty days, already one third of the vacation has been completed, already merchants are preparing for "Back to School" sure seems that we are having a short summer this year, but as I have said many, many times before as you get older things get shorter and shorter... you can believe it or not, or you can take the time to count 'em up... but you only have 133 Shopping days till Christmas... good heavens better get to Roess Market and get your order in for Thanksgiving turkeys, the way it looks now the Council will have Roberts excavated by that time.

It looks, with the generosity of all people of the area, that the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team will be able to keep their heads above the Financial waters, at least for the summer, and many things for the company. Besides whipping the present system into tip top condition, he found that the local office was outgrowing its location and secured new and better offices for the company, but his two major accomplishments are ones that will long be remembered by the executives of the company.

Company executives would have been extremely happy had the Sierra Office obtained and maintained 1500 subscribers for the System, but two years ahead of their expectations, Justo presented them with 2250 subscribers.

Justo foresaw the company advantages of including Arcadia to the system, on this phase of the work, he spent many night and weekend hours, meeting with Arcadia executives and now as he is leaving the Franchise is sealed and the system is complete, ready for hook-up installations. Indeed two great accomplishments for Justo Caffi and H. B. American.

Manager Caffi is a professional businessman. During his life span has been banker, realtor, musician and a master of tri-lingual speaking. He entered television in its infancy in South America, back in the early 1950's.

Argentina born, son of Dr. Augusto Caffi, member of a very respectable family in Buenos Aires, Justo came to the United States in the year 1962, after the completion of a master antenna television system at the Governmental Residential Mansion of the late president Dr. Guido.

Upon his arrival in the United States, Caffi joined the Wally Dean TV - UHF system in Hollywood and was put in charge of the Latin American Department. Later he joined the H. and B. Communications Corporation of Beverly Hills and on January 1, 1966, was sent to Sierra Madre to take over management of this installation, replacing Ray Starr, who was transferred to Prescott, Arizona.

Justo Caffi, with wife Elsa and 13 year old son, have become a very important part of our city, having shown great concern with the progress of the city and the entertainment field for its citizens. His management and untiring work has perfected the viewing of television for 2250 subscribers to the system.

Now Justo and his wife Elsa and son will be leaving Sierra Madre. On Monday evening July 7, city dignitaries and executives met at the Northwood's Inn to have a delightful dinner and wish Justo and family farewell. T. & B. American Cablevision Co. through its new Sierra Madre Systems Manager Roger Walker presented Justo a plaque in memento of his success in Sierra Madre.

The plaque said in part "To Honor Justo Caffi, General Manager, in appreciation for an outstanding performance of his duties with Poothill T. V. Cable Company," a beautiful presentation and one that will be long remembered.

Justo has on his plans to visit with his family in Buenos Aires, his father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. Augusto Caffi is looking forward to this visit about December of this year.

Farewell, Justo, it was a job well done, all of us will miss you, Great luck and success in your new ventures, we will be remembering you, always.

Cactus-Succulent Society Meets

The regular meeting of the San Gabriel Valley Cactus and Succulent Society will be held in the Lecture Room of the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum, Arcadia, Monday evening, July 21, 1969, 7:30 p.m.

An educational program will be presented by two of our Charter Members — Aaron Forst and Vivienne Doney. Aaron's lecture "Anatomy and Crafting of Cacti" will focus on the structure of these plants as it relates to the grafting process. This means of propagating, with many individual approaches, can be most rewarding. Aaron grows fine plants primarily contained in pots and staged on tables and shelves in a tree-sheltered yard and patio. Vivienne will present some of her "unique" techniques in a demonstration on grafting.

Members, guests and the general public are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Firefighters Serve Without Thought of Selves

homes, taxes, problems and tragedies just like anyone else in the community.

As a former Monrovia firefighter I realize that days, dates and holidays mean nothing to a firefighter where his duty is concerned, and July 4th, 1969 at 5:30 a.m. was just another morning to me as I sat down at the typewriter to fulfill a promise made to Bob Evans (also a firefighter), the editor of the Sierra Madre News. (As an editor and a firefighter, July 4th will be important to him, but his work in either case, does not take a holiday, nor can he and I'll bet he is busy today! Sierra Madre, California is a relatively small city, but sure enough with a City Manager and all the trimmings. Its city limits back right up to Pasadena . . . the "Home of the Fireman's 4th of July - Fireworks and Circus," held annually in the world famous Rose Bowl, which is often used for other than JUST football. Just above the Rose Bowl is the equally famous Jet Propulsion Laboratory, known colloquially as J.P.L. This is the home of those men who are known as the men behind the moon . . . what "Fire" power!

But July 4th is traditional for parades, picnics and fireworks. Many of the small variety will be set off by the small fry while a spectacular array will be set off by Firemen at the Rose Bowl.

Since, logically, I cannot tell you about each and every man who may proudly call himself a "Firefighter," and each and every one a hero in his own, let me tell you of a fireman, a former Sailor, from Redondo Beach who traveled to Sacramento to speak in behalf of the Coast Cities Firemen.

Harold Keith Bowers grew up in the High Mountain area in Southern Colorado, the San Luis Valley and called by some "The Big Valley." This area, nearly three times the size of Massachusetts, and lies between the Sangre de Cristo (Blood of Christ) and Culebra ranges on the east and Sawatch on the west. This valley is completely surrounded by mountains which rise over 14,600 feet above the valley floor which is 7,600. Bowers Peak, named after Harold's grandfather, Walter Frank Bowers, is among the mountains above the valley. Walter Bowers was one of Colorado's first National Forest Rangers. The Bower name is also well known in the gold and silver mine areas of Colorado — Silver Cliff, Creede and Summitville.

(Mine fires are mighty rough and many men lose their lives.)

Harold's mother and father, James Wesley "Jim" and Mable (Griffin) Bowers were the Valley's milk and cream buyers for the Beatrice Cream Company (Meadowgold) of Denver, Colorado.

Jim's grandfather, for whom he was named, was the LAW in Cripple, Colorado, during the "Boom Days" and Jim still has and cherishes dearly, the Colt 45 revolver six shooter, which his grandfather James Bowers carried during those 'rough and ready' days.

Jim was also a fireman with the Forest Service in Monte Vista, Colorado and it was while fighting a grass fire that he was struck down by lightning. It was after this that the family moved to California.

The Friday, before July 4, Harold's mother passed away. As it turned out, Jim was not able to attend his wife's funeral, for five hours after her passing, he went into surgery and had his leg taken off above the knee.

When Harold was a fireman at Redondo Beach the city got a Fireboat and he was assigned to fight the fires along the beach. Now entirely retired from the proud service of firefighters, Harold is just a small business man with a Fence Company in Redondo Beach. Retirement was forced upon him by a heart attack. As I write this, perhaps Harold's only daughter, Kathy might be giving birth to another fireman. Then too, maybe one of Harold's son will follow in his footsteps.

All of this just serves to remind you, that a Firefighter, whether he be in the service of the Volunteer groups, City Departments, County, State or Federal units, is a citizen just like you and me and he needs our help and prayers not just while on active duty, but all the time. These men have families and have to face every day living just like the rest of us. Like the police, they protect the home, so let's remember to do all we can to help them do their job. They are deserving of all help and appreciation we can give them.

Next time you see a fire truck, or fire-fighting equipment, stop and think about the men of this service. Do not be careless. It only takes one fire to ruin a great deal and often that fire is started by just one small 'burned out' match, or 'smuffed out' cigarette. As Smokey the Bear says, "Please put out your match, and don't start a fire."

Activities Of Local District Attorney's Office Disclosed

(Editor's note: This is the second in a series of five articles describing activities and organization of the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office, including the branch serving this area. The information is based on a recently-published annual report.)

PART II

The Bureau of Central Operations of the District Attorney's Office, headed by Dep. Dist. Atty. J. Miller Leavy as director, and Joseph L. Carr, assistant director, contains three divisions — complaint, preliminary and juvenile — an one section — juvenile.

Central Operations is responsible for processing all felony matters in the Central District of Los Angeles Superior Court, except those handled by the Special Investigations Division and the Major Frauds Division.

This part of the District Attorney's Office also has responsibilities for all "red light" abatement proceedings under the Uniform Reciprocal Witness Act for the entire county.

In addition, the bureau represents the District Attorney at the Main and El Monte branches of Juvenile Court.

During 1968, 97 deputy district attorneys were assigned to the bureau.

The trials division, headed by Dep. Dist. Atty. Aaron H. Stovitz, prosecutes felony matters and staffs one master calendar court and 22 trial courts.

Some of the cases handled by trials last year, according to Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger, included:

Murder by insulin (People vs. Archer), which was the first prosecution of a case of murder by insulin injection in the United States. At the trial, Dep. Dist. Atty. Raymond J. Daniels presented 140 witnesses, including 40 physicians. In March, 1968, William Dale Archer was sentenced to death on three counts of first-degree murder.

Murder at the County Courthouse (People vs. Dilbeck). In January, 1968, Thomas Dilbeck shot and killed his wife, and shot and injured his wife's attorney and two witnesses who were about to testify in a contested divorce hearing. Dilbeck was convicted of first-degree murder and assault with intent to commit murder. He was found to be sane at the time of the offenses and was sentenced to life imprisonment. Dep. Dist. Atty. Patrick T. McCormick handled the prosecution.

Mother has Daughter Kill Father (People vs. Shambelin). In February, 1968, William Shambelin was shot by his daughter who claimed that he tried to rape her. She was told what to do and what to say by her mother. The daughter eventually told the truth and this resulted in a first-degree murder conviction for the mother, who was found to be sane and received a life sentence. The prosecutor was Dep. Dist. Atty. Owen Boon.

Child in a Meter Box Murder (People vs. Bell). A six-year old boy, missing for two and a half weeks, was found in a meter box near the Long Beach Freeway. The defendant, Horace Bell, was returned to Los Angeles from Texas and a jury convicted him of first-degree murder and imposed a life sentence. Dep. Dist. Atty. Dino Fuligni was the prosecutor.

Complaint Division

This division files all felony complaints in the main office of the District Attorney, located in the Hall of Justice, and is headed by Dep. Dist. Atty. James J. Shea.

Members of this division are required to exercise a quasi-judicial function in determining whether or not there is sufficient legal evidence of convincing character to justify the conclusion that a felony had been committed and that the suspect is guilty of the act.

Because of the various deficiencies in evidence, 59 per cent of the requests for complaints were rejected by the division last year.

A stand-by system developed in 1967 to reduce loss of time by law enforcement officers waiting for a complaint deputy was improved last year.

Under this system, on unusually heavy days for the division, trial deputy district attorneys not immediately needed in the trial courts report to the division and assist until they are summoned to their respective courts by telephone.

During 1968, there was a significant increase in the workload of the division, with 33,486 requests for complaints received compared to 29,453 in 1967, a 14 per cent increase.

Preliminary Division

Under the direction of its head, Dep. Dist. Atty. Florence E. Linn, this division continued a program of flexible expansion to meet the demands of an ever-increasing workload.

It is the primary function of the preliminary division to take all cases arising in the Central District of Superior Court, approximately half of the total in the county, through arraignment, preliminary hearing and the filing of an information.

During 1968, the division presented 18 per cent more preliminary hearings, involving 23 per cent more defendants than during 1967.

In response to this increase, and with the cooperation of both the presiding judge of Los Angeles Municipal Court and the judge of the Masters Calendar Court, additional courts were made available.

Besides this, arrangements were made for preliminary cases originating in the Hollywood Division of the Los Angeles Police Department to be heard in the Van Nuys Courthouse.

The division numbers 16 deputy district attorneys, frequently augmented by deputies from the complaint and trials divisions, plus clerical help.

Juvenile Section

This section, headed by Dep. Dist. Atty. Keith Glazer, provides deputy district attorneys for Juvenile Court proceedings and numbers six attorneys.

Basic purpose of the section is to assist the court by presenting the evidence in support of petitions filed by the Probation Department. Dep. Dist. attorneys appear with the consent of the judge or referee and function as in any adult court trial.

In previous years, deputy district attorneys appeared in only serious and complicated cases, but in 1967 new legislation was enacted providing that the district attorney may appear in cases in which the juvenile is charged with a crime.

The law also provided for the appearance of deputy district attorneys in cases where the juvenile was the victim of molestation or abuse in the family setting and in which a member of the household is being prosecuted.

The requests for participation by this office have increased very greatly over the past year and continue to increase each and every month, related Younger.

Legislation, he continued, is expected to be offered which would charge the district attorney with the duty of filing petitions wherein the minor is charged with a crime.

This is now being performed by the Probation Department and would significantly expand the District Attorney's role in the Juvenile Court process, he added. During 1968, the District Attorney's Juvenile Court section handled over a thousand cases, including many homicides, several of which were certified to the adult court. One involved the killing of Oscar Bryant, a Los Angeles police officer.

"Without a doubt noted Younger, 'this section will continue to grow in size, importance and in the role it plays within the office of District Attorney.'

NEXT WEEK: Appellate, Major Fraud, Child Support, Grand Jury Advisor, Research and Training, Extradition, Medico-legal, Psychiatric Units.)

Deadline Near For Flood Claim

A final warning was issued today by Alvin P. Meyers, Regional Director of the Small Business Administration in Los Angeles, to owners of residential or business property which was damaged during the floods of last January who have not already filed for federal disaster loans that they have a little over two weeks left to do so. July 31 is the deadline for these disaster applications.

Businesses, residences, private schools, and other non-profit organizations located in the ten southern counties of California whose property was damaged are eligible under SBA's Disaster Loan Program, Meyers stated, provided they file applications before the deadline.

Headquarters for the Small Business Administration disaster offices are at 849 So. Broadway, Los Angeles 90014. Telephone number is Area Code 213, 688-2956.

Under certain circumstances business operators may be eligible for economic injury loans if their businesses were closed as a result of the floods and mudslides or if access roads to their businesses were tied up for any considerable length of time.

Damage done to agricultural property, however, Meyers declared, is not subject to SBA disaster loans, and ranchers and farmers were advised to seek disaster relief from the Department of Agriculture, Farmers Home Administration.

The ice cream cone was first presented at the St. Louis World's Fair in 1904, and now up to four billion cones a year are consumed in this country.

closed that the smell had come from a faulty floor furnace, although three light bulbs were blown at one time. Owner of the house is Norman Brooks, living next door.

Twelve regular firefighters answered the call with Truck 421 and 422 responding. Chief Charles Brown declared that no damage was done and released men and equipment at 10:20 to return to the station and prepare for the next call.

Again at the hour of 7:43 a.m. Fri., July 11, your firefighters were called to 172 E. Mira Monte where it was reported that a car, a 1963 Corvair was afire.

Engine 424 made the run in 2 minutes 16 seconds and the firefighters extinguished the fire with a fire extinguisher. The fire was caused by a short in the ignition switch.

Thirteen regular firefighters and one Reserve answered the alarm, and with the damage set by Fire Chief Charles Brown as under $25 the men and equipment were released at 7:49 to return to the station and prepare the equipment for the next call.

Again Saturday night at the hour of 11:22 your Volunteers rallied to the alarm to 100 Esperanza or off Webster Way where it was reported that a brush fire was in progress. The property was owned by Arthur Draeger and the report was called in by Christos Pagoulas.

Engine 424 answered the alarm in 3 minutes and 10 seconds with 423 as backup, with Truck 421 and 422 and car 426 also responding. 21 firefighters and one Reserve answered the alarm.

Again the second alarm was sounded at 11:34 to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams at 111 Colony Dr. Engine 423 responded to this call in six minutes to find the home filled with smoke and the cause was determined to be a burning motor in the heating system.

All personnel and equipment listed above responded to this location and the damage to the motor plus smoke damage was estimated by Fire Chief Charles Brown to be under $100. Men and equipment were released to return to the station at 1:04 a.m. Sunday morning.

Again Sunday morning at the hour of 11:41 a.m. your Volunteers were summoned by the alarm to 451 West Sierra Madre Boulevard to apartment "C."

Engine 424 arrived at the scene in 2 minutes and 10 seconds to find that an overheated and burned out motor from the air conditioner had filled the apartment "C" with smoke, but the fire was out on arrival. Engine 423 was on standby and Truck 421 and 422 and Car 426 also responded.

Eighteen Regular Firefighters and two Reserves answered the alarm. Chief Charles Brown set the extent of the damage to the motor plus smoke damage at under $100. He released the men and equipment at 12:17 to return to the station and prepare for the next call. The damage was done to the apartment of M. W. Wermuth.

Monday at 12 noon your Sierra Madre Volunteers were placed on stand-by with Mutual Aid on Plan B with a fire having been set behind the big "M" in Monrovia. At 1:10 p.m. your department was dispatched to the Chantry Flats area where another fire had been set approximately 3 1/4 miles up Chantry Flats Road.

Engine 424 responded with six men with the balance of the department on stand-by and relief. Your department with Engine 424 was on duty pumping water to the Forest Service and County of Los Angeles until 9 Monday evening.

At 5:35 your department was again called into action at 66 E. Laurel, to the home of John P. Graham. Engine 423 and 425 responded to find another brush fire in the back yard in full progress. This fire was contained and crew back in the station in 20 minutes.

At one time five brush fires were going in the foothills, all of them under suspicion of arson with as many as four suspects under custody.

These seven calls in the past five days brings the total of full responses for Fire Suppression to 49 for the year, as compared to 27 at this time one year ago.

$80,000 Awaiting Claimants

Another large estate, this one almost $80,000 in cash and bonds, is being held in the Unclaimed Property Office of the State Controller for any legal heirs who may come forth, Controller Houston I. Flournoy reported today.

The estate is that of William C. Goldsmith, 84, who died September 25, 1965, in El Monte, California. It consists of $28,965.49 in cash, $30,000 in Series H U.S. Savings Bonds, and $20,000 in U.S. Treasury Coupon Bonds bearing 4 per cent interest.

The estate was distributed to the State of California because there was no known heirs of Goldsmith. All taxes have been paid and the estate is accruing on the Bonds. Should no legitimate heirs come forward by March 12, 1974, the entire estate will be turned over to the State's General Fund.

Records of the estate indicate Goldsmith, a native of Columbus, Texas, was a carpenter who from 1928 until his retirement in 1946 worked in the Fox movie studios. His wife, May E., died in 1962 and her share of the community property was distributed by her heirs.

Goldsmith's estate represents his separate property and his share of the community property.

The Goldsmith estate was received in the Controller's Unclaimed Property Office less than a month after the unclaimed $111,364 estate of William Goodman of Los Angeles which has drawn nationwide attention. Flournoy said his office had received inquiries from persons residing in 24 states who hope they may have some claim to the Goodman estate.

Although it is one of the largest unclaimed estates in the State's history, the Goodman estate is only one of some 6,600 totaling over $7,500,000 under the Controller's custody and awaiting either legitimate claimants or expiration of the five-year limitation.

Over the past few months we have been submitting to your newspaper stories about our San Gabriel Valley Council 50th Anniversary Campaign Fund Drive. The help and support that you have given this endeavor by printing these stories has greatly aided our campaign.

May I personally express my appreciation and that of the San Gabriel Council of the Boy Scouts of America for your support.

More Tax Relief Checks Mailed

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy this past week mailed 141,564 checks of $70 each to Californians certified by their county assessors as eligible to receive the Homeowners Property Tax Relief payments.

This was the second distribution of payments under the program initiated by the legislature and approved by the voters in 1968. The first distribution on June 13 totaled 2,237,000 such checks to other claimants.

Flournoy said some county assessors still are processing applications received by the May 23 deadline for filing. Future payments will be made as the certified applications are received in the Controller's office in Sacramento, he said.

The payments represent a rebate on 1968-69 property taxes. For 1969-70 and subsequent years, eligible applicants may qualify for $750 exemptions on the assessed value of their property for local property tax purposes.

Over half (71,582) of the checks went to Los Angeles County.

OFF THE CUFF STUFF . . . OUTSTANDING FOOTBALL PLAYERS are intelligent, active in school affairs and like to wrestle it seems, after checking results from a poll of the high school grads selected to play in the 4th annual San Gabriel Valley All-Star game.

Teams from the East and West will meet Thursday night, July 31, at Citrus College, with three charitable organizations, the Casa Colina Rehabilitation Center, Foothill Presbyterian Hospital of Glendora and the Glendora Welfare Association, benefiting from the proceeds.

Seven players were members of their school's honor society . . . One was student body president, another student body vice-president . . . Three were senior class presidents . . . Two commissioners of athletics, one Boys League prexy, four Lettermen's Club presidents and six others held Stephen DeGrey and Steve Quinn are the second members of their family to play in the SGV All-Star tiff. DeGrey's brother, Richard, played for La Canada in 1966, while Quinn's brother, Pat, played the same year for Upland.

Queens for the contest are Debby Hardin, 17-year old blonde from Temple City High and Northview's Dorsie Looft.

TICKETS, economically priced at $2.50 for adults and $1 for kids under 12, can be purchased at Wheeler's Sporting Goods and Mayflower Market in Arcadia, Sport Chalet in La Canada, Monrovia's Mayflower Market, Carl's and Irv Noren's Sporting Goods in Pasadena.

BOTH SQUADS will start two-a-day workouts next Monday with the West team under Arroyo's Bob Settle, working at Pasadena City College and the East team at Citrus College.

WOULD YOU BELIEVE a fresh-water fishing trip was finally successful? Yep, son Tim, nephew Harry Parmer, and brother Dick helped Old Hankus pull in something like 35 nice pan-sized trout of the Kern River over the 4th of July holidays. Bass fishing on Lake Isabella was also terrific but our group was chased from the lake because of a foot-and-a-half short age in the length of the boat. Any-one want to buy a 9 1/2 foot "leaky tub"?

try Flats hasn't stirred an eyebrow. But the Arcadians who would be below Lilliano's cut and fill acreage far for their property by reason of the mountainside being disturbed by bulldozers and the memory of Rainbow Drive, Glendora, during last winter's storms still fresh in their minds.

Some Sierra Madreams in the Lilliano Tract express complaints that the proposed restaurant will look right down into their back yards.

City Councilmen have stated that the installation would mean a yearly income to the city of over $10,000 plus the tax valuation of the property expected to be well over the $125,000 mark, and these facts may be hard for the City Council to turn down, even though the Planning Commission may have other ideas.

Lilliano developed three short streets in Sierra Madre above Grandview Street and west of North Santa Anita but his major development of the middle Sixties never got off the ground. Arcadia and Sierra Madre home owners are expected to protest the development Thursday night at Sierra Madre city hall.

Normally the residents would have been officially notified of the project but they are not only 85 feet below the proposed site, but more than 300 feet away.

Heitman At Sierra Eng.

... Appointed

Aaron Bloom, president of Sierra Engineering Co., has announced the appointment of David L. Heitman as general sales manager for the company's three major product lines. Included in Mr. Heitman's new sales responsibilities are the Helmet Division; the Commercial and General Aviation Oxygen System Division; and the Anthropometric Test Dummy Division. The production and sales facilities of all three divisions are located at the company main plant in Sierra Madre. Sierra Engineering Co. is a subsidiary of CapTech Inc., Santa Monica, and enjoys gross sales estimated to be between $9 and $10 million annually.

Dave Heitman has a long history of successes in sales and has been an employee of Sierra Engineering Co. since 1961. Since joining Sierra he has been in charge of the company's mid-western sales and has been based at Tinker Air Force Base near Oklahoma City, Okla. He and Mrs. Heitman and their 14 year old son, John, will re-locate in the Sierra Madre-Pasadena area in the near future. Another son, Max, is serving in the U.S. Navy aboard the USS Sphinx.

"Make Way" or "Make Do" are the names Carole and Frank Kuchenski have been tossing around for their new 8 ft. Sabot sail boat. Sons Bob, age 12, Don 9 1/2, and Steve 7 1/2 as well as Mom and Dad are having a ball sailing around Balboa Island and the Lido Bay area. One day last week Carole's sister Marian Osborn and children Kirk, Carol Ann, and Paul joined them for a wonderful day of sailing. Tommy Solury, a good friend of Steve's was included in this sailing party and a great time was had by all. Carol says somehow she never gets a turn so she is going to get out their first next week.

Maybe You Can Recall An Incident

Can You Remember Back Possibly To Years 1918-19

By Dr. Leonard Wood

The date of this incident is sometime in March 1919, about four months after the Armistice following the first World War, fifty years ago. It is named for a horse Abadie, but for who's strange behavior and perfect timing there would be no incident to record.

ABADIE

We left Montigny-Sur-Aube about an hour after sun-up on an overcast morning — forty enlisted men and non-commissioned officers, a captain and two lieutenants, mounted on horses of various sizes, colors, and breeds, left over from the French cavalry after the Armistice.

We rode strung out two abreast with Sgt. Orchard on my left following the captain and two lieutenants. Sgt. Orchard was riding that enigma of horseflesh, called for some reason, Abadie.

Sgt. Orchard was the only one of the troop aside from the captain who had spent any time in the cavalry — four straight hitches. He was on the border with "Black Jack" Pershing during the Mexican fiasco.

As for the rest we were, for the most part, farm or small-town boys more conversant with harness and singletrees than McClellan saddles, and knowing Sgt. Orchard's background, it was somewhat of a mystery that he chose the most unlikely horse in the outfit.

About Abadie; he was an offbeat kind of horse, subject to strange behavior without notice or prodromal symptoms. He was, in cavalry parlance, a "picketline bum," somewhat jug-bellied and bushel-footed, and would strain to tip the scales to eight hundred. He traveled well on maneuvers with the troop, but alone on an afternoon ride he was something else again.

I remember riding him out on a Sunday afternoon, and with some effort getting him into a slow canter, when we arrived at a small culvert. Without warning he planted his feet, and they stayed planted in spite of my best effort. I tried leading him over, backing him over, with no success. A blindfold was the final answer. On the return trip, again the planting of feet and the blindfold. Finally across and headed for home he seemed to experience a surge of adrenalin as we came to familiar ground.

but then back again at the picket line he lapsed into contented fatuity, not unlike a python digesting a full meal.

We continued South toward Châtillon-Sur-Seine, along those splendid tree-lined roads of France, some built by the Romans centuries ago, with deep beds of solid rock. We passed small villages, gave way for occasional small heads of goats or sheep, and as the predicted rain was becoming a reality, we dismounted under some trees near an abattoir, from which wafted a discouraging effluvia of bloods and guts, to don our ponchos.

The farmers, always up early, created a milieu of activity. One driving a small wagon drawn by two small horses came at a gallop from a local epicerie with the familiar ring of French bread slung over the jacobstaff of his wagon and thundered out of town. Bleating of condemned sheep came from the abattoir, and we mounted and galloped on.

Finally the town of Châtillon-Sur-Seine came in view. We did not come to the city proper but made a right turn into a large parade ground where several infantry divisions had already arrived. We deployed in our appointed place and waited. The rain was still falling in a persistent drizzle. We sat our mounts at ease, talking, some trying to smoke by shielding their cigarette beneath their poncho, then bringing it out for a quick puff.

We waited thus for over an hour, horses and men both becoming restless. Finally the rain ceased and we got the command to dismount and stow our ponchos. We remained dismounted and at ease, holding our mounts by the headstall, trying to keep them quiet and in some semblance of alignment. Sgt. Orchard remained mounted at my left. Sixty Years Ago:

Men wishing or willing to assist in the organization of a volunteer fire department are requested to meet at the City Hall next Tuesday evening, July 13, at 7:30. A meeting has been called for the purpose by the Board of Trade committee having the matter in charge. It is hoped that the number present and the interest in the project will warrant the formation of a permanent organization at that time. It is probable that officers will be elected and rules adopted for the government of the department. The importance of such an organization as the one contemplated can hardly be overestimated. It will necessarily be a thing of small beginnings, so far as apparatus is concerned. But the city fathers have it in mind to provide apparatus as soon as the state of the city treasury will warrant. Meanwhile it is important that a working organization be formed. It is probable that the activities of the department will be largely social for a time, as an inducement to hold the members together. Everything must have a beginning, and the problems of the local situation will be worked out as may be possible from time to time. Come out and give the volunteer fire department a boost.

You and Your Neighbor

by NANCY BRYAN

How lucky can you get?

Jane Jardine was returning from a trip to the beach last week with her two girls, Karin and Leslie; Mrs. Ursula Jones and her daughter, Lorraine; and Stacy and Robin Morse and while driving along Rivergrade Road, a large truck with a load of large boulders lost two of the larger ones . . . Right on top of Jane's car. One boulder broke the front windshield and continued on out the back of the car while the second one entered from the back. The car looks as if a train hit it, but somehow Jane managed to keep control and pull over to the side of the road. Plenty of cuts, bruises and glass in hair and eyes. Mrs. Jardine can not say enough wonderful words about the officials, in the form of the Highway Patrol, the Fire Department, and the ambulance crew who arrived upon the scene in record time. They were efficient, kind, courteous and handled the situation from start to finish. Pat yourselves on the back, fellows.

Always deserving of laurels, which they too often do not receive, it is a pleasure to sing a song of praise to them . . . and Mrs. Jardine and her passengers will be among the chorus.

Happy birthday to David Roess (of Roess' Market fame) who celebrated his natal anniversary on Sunday, July 6. Day was spent at his sister and brother-in-law's, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oelschleger, in Tahitian Terrace in Pacific Palisades where David was guest of honor and sort of 'King for a Day.' Naturally, wife Mary and children Fred, Mary, Joy and Ruth accompanied their parents. Festivities of the day included Joy in a sort of early "Happy Birthday." She will be 16 years old on July 17. The best to you birthday people and many, many more happy birthdays, each better than the last.

Can You Remember Back To 1918-19

of time we could make out of the slow approach of General Pershing's staff of reviewing officers. Tension began to be evident. We no longer smoked. Our mounts became more restless. The officers were approaching the tail end of the Ninetieth Division about one hundred yards to our left, when we were called to attention.

My peripheral vision could feebly make out Sgt. Orchard sitting stately and fine, guidon in the rest position, pointing skyward. At the precise moment he would raise it and dip it to salute to the Commanding General of the American Expeditionary Forces and his party. It was indeed a tense moment. They were approaching rapidly now.

I became at this point, vaguely aware of some disaster taking place at my left. Abadie seemed to be sinking into the ground, as though the earth had become quicksand. The precise moment had arrived. General Pershing and staff were now directly in front, only ten yards away. They were staring in amazement like birds hypnotized by a snake. Suddenly General Pershing strode from the group and stood directly in front of Sgt. Orchard. He was smiling and obviously amused. Restrained laughter was heard from his retinue. The General said in a soft, almost kind voice, "Well Sedgeman, what do we do in a case like this?"

I could then sneak a sideways glance at what had actually happened. Sgt. Orchard stood straddling Abadie who lay flat on his belly, with legs doubled under him like a camel. Sgt. Orchard stood over him, feet planted on solid ground like the Colossus of Rhodes. He answered the General's question with action, unstraddled Abadie and administered two resounding boots to the belly, punctuated by some of his vast catalogue of epithets.

Abadie's first act was to commit a seismic nuisance and then, with consummate heroism, scrambled to his feet, apparently no worse for the incident.

Sgt. Orchard then remounted with dignity, returned the guidon to the rest position for a second, then raised and dipped it in salute. The salute was returned, the tension was broken, and General and staff moved on.

It's Your Money At Work — Daily

Medicare Has Worked Well Due To Cooperation

As the nation's Medicare program is celebrating its third birthday this month, old Pasadena resident has McDill, who is expected to leave St. Luke Hospital this week will have all but $74.30 of her hospital bill of almost $2000 paid by Medicare. In addition, Medicare provides help toward paying Mrs. McDill's doctor bills for her current illness.

"I just do not have the kind of money it takes to pay all these medical bills," Mrs. McDill said. "I required three specialists besides my own family doctor, and many lab tests and cardiograms had to be taken. I was six days in the intensive care unit. Also, my doctor has informed me that I must go to a convalescent home for a while after discharge from the hospital, as additional medical care will be necessary before I go home. If there were no Medicare I do not know what I would have done."

"Not having to worry about the costs involved is helping me to get well quicker," Mrs. McDill added. "This story is certainly not unique," said James Piza, manager of the Social Security office at Pasadena. "Medicare has covered 1 1/2 million hospital stays in California since its inception three years ago. In addition, it has helped pay for more than 200,000 admissions in nursing homes following hospitalization. Medicare has paid bills amounting to over $530 million for doctors' and other medical services in California."

"The success of the program can be measured in dollars and cents," Piza said. "The true meaning of Medicare for Mrs. McDill and millions of other senior citizens throughout the country is in the care which they are able to get. Before the program went into effect in July 1966, many older people had to put off or go without care as they could not afford the necessary treatment. Millions now have peace of mind that an illness will not eat up a lifetime's savings, to make it necessary to sell a home which is finally paid for, or to call upon their children for help in paying medical bills."

"By paying for post-hospital care either in an extended care facility or home visits by a nurse, Medicare has made it possible for the doctor to choose the level of care most appropriate to his patient's condition."

"That Medicare has worked well — is due to the cooperation and hard work of thousands of people — both inside and outside government," Piza said. "The physicians, nurses, hospital administrators, as well as Blue Cross, and private insurance companies who help administer Medicare, have all been essential to its success."

most probably before the end of July, and the end of the Fund Drive the necessary minimum amount of money will have been received.

At this writing, and before the mail drive starts to respond we find that the newspaper has been successful in bringing in $3,000 of the $4,000 minimum. This is 75 per cent of the required amount and we think it is wonderful of the people that have responded.

With that certain individual adding $25.00 for everyone that gives $50.00 or more it is our great hope that the Newspaper drive will net well over $3,500. We hope that the personal drive of the team in the Business district will round up another $500, and we are sure that individuals that receive the mailing piece and respond will take the drive up to close to the $5,000 mark.

We hear rumors about Fashion shows and rummage sales in the fall, and it is hoped that these projects will filter in the required finances to keep the team going until the big time in May next year when we will have the Mount Wilson Trail Races, another drive with maybe a dance added to raise money for the 1970-71 year operation.

It has indeed been an outstanding response, Lester Anthony, Team Chairman of the drive should certainly be congratulated for keeping the ball rolling and the incentive sent out to the people to get them to respond. . . . Thank you citizens, it has been a job expertly done, and each of you will remember throughout the summer, as your team goes out to help, maybe a member of your family, maybe a friend or perhaps just a citizen, that you are walking and climbing with the Team, it is you that made it possible, and don't think for a minute that each one of the boys don't realize this to the fullest extent and send you their thanks.

We will close the column this week with the following facts . . . The Tax Foundation, Incorporated says . . . All taxes to be collected by the federal, state and local governments for the year 1969 will average $3,927.00 per American family. . . . this is $370.00 more than in the year 1968 and is expected to be $460.00 less than 1970 . . . are you ready, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Crib Crop

Not much information, but congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Levin of 1225 Valley View Avenue, who became the parents of a baby boy on July 5, at the Arcadia Methodist Hospital.

Dividend
Security Pacific National Bank's board of directors Tuesday, July 8, declared the regular quarterly dividend of 32 cents per share on the 16,800,000 shares outstanding, payable August 5 to shareholders of record July 15.

First Western Reports Increase

First Western Bank, of Los Angeles, today reported an 18 per cent increase in net operating earnings for the first half of 1969, according to Stafford Grady, chairman of the board and president of the statewide, 90-branch bank. The six-months earnings figure amounted to $2,934,000, compared to $2,487,000, for the same period in 1968.

Based on average number of shares outstanding, First Western, which is owned by Worldamerica Investors, Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Oakland-based World Airways, Inc., earned $2.14 per share, during the first half of this year, an increase of 32 cents over last year's $1.82 for the same period.

Second quarter net operating earnings reflected an increase of 10.8 per cent, or $1,476,000 compared to 1968's $1,332,000. Total assets during the first half increased to $931,694,000, from $872,006,000.

Important oil wells are reported to be operating at Lost Hills in Kern County.

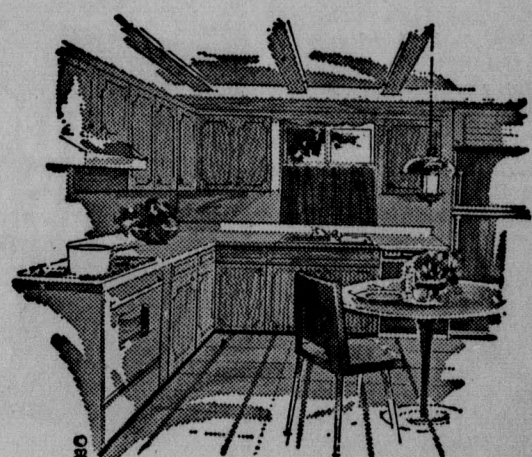

for visits now that Bette Rowe, who works for United Air Lines, has transferred from San Francisco to San Diego. Bette, a long time Sierra Madrean, is the sister and sister-in-law of Bill and Donna Rowe of Monterey Lane. Scott and Dana will probably be quite anxious to spend as much time as possible with their aunt as all that nice beach, weather and spots of interest including the Zoo. And besides, Aunt Bette is a real fun person!

Search Team

some 40 feet from the point where the VW came to rest. Philip Vallicella, the driver, started that he was driving north on Santa Anita Canyon Road when he skidded on some sand and went over the side at 10:30 p.m. By 10:45 p.m. the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team had 16 members at the scene and five minutes after that, had two men at the victims. The passenger, Philip Capobianco, was the most seriously injured, suffering from a concussion and multiple abrasions and lacerations. The driver suffered only minor abrasions and lacerations.

Rescue team member lowered the two injured boys by litter the rest of the way down the hill. They were then rushed to Arcadia Methodist Hospital for treatment. From the time the call was received to the time that the boys were at the hospital was under an hour and a half. Assisting the rescue team was the Arcadia Fire Department personnel and snorkey rig and the U.S. Forest Service.

Action

Following his graduation from USC, Christ spent several years working on athletic programs in the Orient. He worked with the Asia Foundation for two years in Cambodia, then with the U.S. Department of State as American Sports Specialist in Africa. He then returned to USC where he earned his Masters of Science Degree.

For those young people not interested in basketball, "Action" provides a lively recreational period, beginning at 3:30 on Tuesdays, consisting of such things as scavenger hunts, snail races, wild goose chases, and numerous other team adventures for which prizes may be won. A delicious dinner is served at 5:30 for the nominal charge of 50 cents per person. At 6 p.m. is the time for Interaction — a period of skits provided by the Chi Alpha Players of the College Fellowship, songs and guitar accompaniment, and devotions. In addition to Chris Appel, adult leaders of "Action" include Rev. Richard Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Lucht, Mr. Jack Lindquist, and the dinners are provided by Mrs. Carl Cheadle and Mrs. James Nicholson.

Braves Win

with the Braves taking second place. In accepting trophies for his team, Bob announced that in the three years Rex Nielsen has pitched for the Braves he has never lost a game. Tournament officials scheduled 11 leagues into the double elimination contest in a two week period. Sierra Madre defeated Hastings Ranch, East Pasadena, West Pasadena twice and San Marino. Sierra Madre will sponsor the first round elimination of the Area All Start Tournament on home ground at Heasley Field this week. President Nielsen has organized a competent crew of fathers and friends to assist him in putting our beautiful field in first class condition for the enjoyment of the crowds expected for these exciting contests. First game is between Pasadena American and East Pasadena on Thursday, July 17, at 5:30 p.m. Sierra Madre will play Hastings Ranch on Friday, July 18, at 5:30 p.m. The third game on Saturday, July 19 at 1:45 p.m. is a consolation game between the losers of the first two games. The final game is Saturday, July 19 at 4:30 p.m. between the winners of the first two games. Everyone is invited to come out and watch these All Stars, who promise to give us some exciting ball games.

Rose Float

Throop, Richard Barden, Mark Montgomery, Ross Tyree and Darryl Mott to name just a few.

Although it may seem a long time from now until January 1, the Sierra Madre Rose Float Association is already well on its way with plans for another prize winning entry in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade. As in years past it is solely through the volunteer efforts of the citizens of Sierra Madre working on design, construction, flower-ing and financing that Sierra Madre can, each year, make an outstanding contribution to the Tournament of Roses parade.

Contributions are always appreciated and may be mailed to Sierra Madre Rose Float Assoc., P.O. Box 603, Sierra Madre, Calif. See you all at the car wash.

Fun Day In Sun For Jr. Women

A sack lunch, swim suit, and a cheery smile is all that is needed to join members of the Altadena Woman's Club Juniors for a fun day in the sun, for a Sack and Suit swim party. Prospective members and guests, interested in becoming acquainted with what it means to be a Junior, will gather Wednesday, July 23, between 11:30 and 2 at the Sierra Madre home of Mrs. Larry Bickel.

Cold drinks, coffee and dessert will be provided by the clubwomen. Mrs. Cliff Finnie, membership chairman will be on hand to answer questions, and help guests become better acquainted with the Altadena Juniors. Special guests will include four new members, Mrs. Dean Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Bertonneau, Mrs. Thomas Morrissey, and Mrs. Vina Stover.

Rev. Armin Hesse Centers Sermon For Sun., July 20

Since the Sunday Gospel Lesson concerns Christ's Feeding of the Four Thousand, the pulpit message in the 10 worship service of Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive, Pasadena, will be entitled, "Bread Which the Lord Has Given." The Rev. Armin Hesse will center his sermon on the words of Moses in Exodus 16:15.

Last week the members of the congregation were informed by President J. T. Elfert that Mr. Donald Hingst, the church's Minister of Christian Education and Youth for the past three years, had submitted his resignation, effective September 1st, in order to accept a public school teaching position. During these years Mr. Hingst has directed an active youth program and has been responsible for a number of innovations for improvement in the church's educational program. A meeting of the Voting Assembly will be called within the near future to act upon the termination of his services.

Activities for the week include a Saturday beach party for the junior high youth, a Foothill Zone sport night for the high school and college youth on Sunday evening, Monday evening Women's Christian Service Guild, a high school youth activity on Wednesday evening, and a junior high youth activity on Thursday evening. At 8:00 on Thursday evening the Senior Choir will meet while the pastor is conducting the Adult Membership class.

Ladies interested in philanthropic endeavors are urged to attend this informal gathering, and become better informed as to what it means to be a Junior Clubwoman, for additional information please call, Mrs. Cliff Finnie, membership chairman, she can be reached at 355-9455.

The first appearance of ice cream, or frozen milk as it was called, took place over 300 years ago in England, at a state banquet given by Charles I of England.

Total production of ice cream, sherbet, ice milk, water ices, etc., amounts to over one billion gallons annually in the U. S.

Neighbors

It's Bon Voyage for Mr. and Mrs. Hans (Elsie) Guthertz of W. Sierra Madre Blvd. who have leased their apartment and have left for an extended tour of South America and Europe. Traveling by freighter to Buenos Aires then by train over the Andes to Chili, back to Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro. Returning to Buenos Aires they will board a Luxury Liner and sail up the African Coast, landing at Genoa, Italy. From Genoa, Hans and Elsie will again travel by train through Spain and spend the winter months on the island of Majorca. Come Spring they will be visiting their brothers in Switzerland, after which they will be criss-crossing Europe seeing most all the countries. Next July will find them headed back to the good old U.S.A. and Sierra Madre. What a wonderful trip for two lovely people.

Roland and Janet Guthertz and son Steve were in Sierra Madre for a few hours last weekend to say "Good-Bye" to Roland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Guthertz who have left on a year's vacation to Europe. Roland, a former Sierra Madre Fireman is now teaching at the High School at Booneville. Janet and Rollie will be remembered by many of the young people of Sierra Madre as they were active with the youth groups at the Congregational Church. Janet keeps busy working at the Library in Booneville and baking and decorating her beautiful cakes. Steve (now 6 ft. 1") has been raising "Bum" lambs, bottle feeding them 24 hours around the clock. He just sold 14 in June. This summer the family is in San Diego where Rollie is attending the summer session at San Diego State.

Congressman Ancher Nelson, Minnesota said: "The national loss in farm income in 1968 due to inflation was equivalent to the value of all the red meat and milk that Minnesota farmers can produce in a year."

New Minister of Education Arrives Bethany Church

REVEREND REED
... New Arrival

Sunday night, the members and friends of Bethany Church of Sierra Madre held a reception on their patio for Reverend and Mrs. Stanley Reed and their family.

Rev. Reed and his family recently arrived in Sierra Madre from Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he served as Minister of Christian Education of the Bethesda Free Church. The members of Bethany Church extended a call to Rev. Reed in April to serve as Minister of Christian Education, and Rev. Reed began his work on July 14.

Rev. Reed did undergraduate work at Grace Bible College in Grand Rapids, Michigan and at Taylor University in Upland, Indiana. He received his Master's Degree from Wheaton College in Illinois. He has five children, ranging in age from fourteen to one. They are Janet 14, Debbie 12, Stephen 9, Susan 8, and Nancy 15 months.

Mrs. Jack Atkinson, Chairman of the Hospitality Committee, planned for the reception and nearly three hundred people were in attendance.

Guest Speaker On 'Love Is the Healer', July 20

Stella Terrill Mann will be guest speaker at the Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, at 11 a.m. Sunday, July 20. Her subject will be "Love Is the Healer," taken from her latest book by that title to be published late this year and currently running in the magazine "New."

Dr. Margaret Stevens, minister, invites the public to hear this inspiring lecturer and author whose books have grown out of her years of serving as a religious counselor and teacher of the Spiritual Laws. They contain helpful case histories from her files. Some of her books will be on sale at the church Sunday morning.

Rev. Stevens says: "This is a non-denominational church teaching the principles that Jesus taught and all are invited to worship with us in an atmosphere of peace and quiet."

Children from pre-school through seventh grade go to graded classes led by dedicated teachers. The young adults hold their meetings on Sunday evenings at 7 p.m.

All women are invited to attend a class in successful living every Thursday at 11 a.m. This is a fine class with a prayer time for requests. Plan to attend and stay for a time of fellowship, is the invitation.

The Ethel Barnhart School is an accredited school from kindergarten through eighth grade, using the Mae Carden System of Learning and Comprehension. Please call 446-8206 if you are interested in enrolling your child in this school which meets the requirements of the Department of Education of the State of California, and it is a Christian Day school. Fenwick Holmes will be guest speaker on July 27 at 11 a.m. His subject will be, "The Prayer That Never Fails." There is still time to make plans to attend the INTA Congress in New York City, July 20-25, where Rev. Stevens will lead the youth of the congress.

Please call the church office for brochures about this congress.

Synopsis of Congregational Sunday Sermon

A synopsis of Gary Lucht's sermon for July 20, at Sierra Madre Congregational says: "Sunday's moon landing will culminate nine years of planning, hard work, and sacrifices, including the lives of several men in the space program. The conquest of outer space is costly and dangerous. But the conquest of inner space — man's inner void — is even costlier and more dangerous."

It concludes with, "Planning took thousands of years and cost God the life of his Son, Jesus Christ."

Lesson-Sermon For Sun., July 20

The Golden Text of this week's Christian Science Lesson - Sermon is from Psalms: "I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord." The subject of the sermon is "Life" and will be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The public is welcome.

"Jesus could give his temporal life into his enemies' hands; but when his earthly mission was accomplished, his spiritual life, indestructible and eternal, was found forever the same." This relative passage, from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, is also part of the sermon.

Neighbors

Raymond and Elsie Rickman are happily looking forward to the big family reunion held every year by Elsie's family. This year the group — which always numbers between 75 and 100 — will meet at Mickey's Grove near Lodi in Northern California. From the very old to the very young attend the gathering of the clan and much fun, visiting, picture taking and exchanging, and future plans are made. The annual family reunion was originally started by members of Elsie's mother's family in honor of her grandfather and grandmother. Grandfather was David Brown who was Supervisor of Glenn County some twenty years or more. Of the original family, all are gone except two. One of the many interesting and well-known relatives expected to be present, will be Mr. Harry M. Butterfield. A noted horticulturist, now in his eighties, he still writes a column for one of the San Francisco papers and his talents are still much in demand as a judge, lecturer and instructor. He used to teach at UC at Berkeley. His hobby is Genealogy and for years he has been keeping the family tree and writing the family history. His daughter Dorothy is married to Elsie's brother, Arnold Rucker. For families to get together for reunions is really something nice and extra special . . . and something that will certainly hold much meaning for the younger family members as they grow older and appreciate having had the chance to meet and know some of the "oldsters" and to hear their stories of the "old days." Unfortunately, many times this opportunity is not fully appreciated until it is too late. Happy reunion get-together!

Supervisor Dorn Urging Property Tax Reductions

Supervisor Warren Dorn recently called on the state legislature and Governor to immediately "call a moratorium on partisan political maneuvering" and "tackle the urgent need of tax reform."

Dorn, president of the County Supervisors Association of California, pointed out in a letter to key members of the legislature that when the legislative session began in January:

"Tax reform, with resultant property tax reduction, was the number one priority pledge made by the Governor and most members of the legislature."

"The State had been set for action this year because this was the time the Governor's commission on tax reform was to report its findings and recommendations to the people — through the Governor's office and the legislature."

"Unfortunately," Dorn continued, "that long-awaited."

ed and well-intentioned report was clouded and lost in maneuvering that followed its submission."

Dorn, declaring that "nothing has been accomplished," urged "constructive action before the session is over."

"There have been many suggestions and proposals. Further partisan political delay will be inexplicable," he added.

Dorn, who sent copies of the letter and a proposed resolution for tax reform to all counties, said tax reform could be accomplished through adoption of a special bipartisan assembly committee's program, major point of which would lift from property owners the burden of costs of welfare programs.

Take your problems to CHURCH this week -- millions leave them there!

To Train A Child

Mommy, I love you.
I'm glad I'm alive.
It's fun to run and play and laugh and dance.
It's hard to stand still and listen.
Mommy, I love you.
Thank you for taking care of me. Thank you for cookies and milk and bread.
Please give me a dime for Sunday School. I like Sunday School. We sing and laugh and learn about God.
Mommy, I love you.

And so on and on she prattles in her own innocent and naive way. Soon, however, her questions will become more complex and her parents will need all the love and wisdom they can obtain.

Fortunately, we as parents are not alone in this endeavor. The Church stands ready and anxious to help us train our children. Through worship, study and meditation we can learn to know what God requires of us. Come to the church of your choice this Sunday and every Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

With the hope that it will, in some measure, foster and help sustain that which is good in family and community life, this feature is sponsored by the business firms and organizations whose names appear in this space.

Editorially.. Speaking A Significant Survey

A highly significant survey concerning public use of private lands has just been released by the American Forest Institute. It covers 65.7 million acres of land of which 57.8 million acres — or 88.2 per cent of all the industry lands in the United States — are owned by the 234 companies that participated in the survey.

Here are the facts: 61.4 million acres of private lands included in the survey are open to hunters in season. Hunters may enter nearly 50 million acres of this vast area without even a company permit or fee. Small fees are charged on only 2 million acres. More than 86,000 miles of company roads are open free to the public as are 14,000 miles of hiking trails. Many companies operate parks with complete facilities for camping, picnicking, boating, swimming, etc. Expenditures of the forest industry on recreation are over $7 million annually.

Another significant aspect of the survey is the apparent lack of public appreciation of outdoor recreational opportunities. It shows that estimated losses to the timber industry from vandalism total $436,000 each year. This vandalism includes destruction of signs, garbage dumping, theft of company property and damage to company equipment. The great tragedy of modern conservation efforts, which mean utilization of resources for both economic and recreational requirements, is that they are not understood by the public. The timber industry is among those working hard to correct this misunderstanding.

Repressive and Illogical

Needlessly repressive regulations often ends in a wave of indignation and modifying legislative action. Such seems to be the case with federal regulation of firearms and ammunition. As of a recent date, 50 bills to alter or repeal the 1968 gun law have been submitted in Congress. Seven pending bills would repeal the entire 1968 Gun Control Law. The author of one of these, Representative Long of Louisiana, said, "it has been made abundantly clear . . . that the act does not serve to keep dangerous weapons from the hands of criminals and incompetents as its proponents claim, but rather works unnecessary hardships on the law-abiding and peaceful citizen who has legitimate uses for firearms." Another congressman pointed out that, "The amount of records keeping and regulation required in ammunition sales defies all the rules of logic and surpasses any legitimate need . . ."

Sentiment is growing for stiffer penalties against criminal use of firearms. Governor Reagan of California, who opposes repressive controls, has declared: "we must amend our laws to make it clear that the criminal who arms himself with a gun will be dealt with severely in every case. We must strengthen the penalties for the illegal use of such weapons without interfering with the legitimate use of firearms by law-abiding citizens."

Citizen ownership of firearms is both a right and a tradition in the United States. It symbolizes independence, as well as individual responsibility — inseparable elements of freedom under representative government. Firearm or ammunition regulations that fail to take into account this fundamental truth have no place in the land.

Real Common Sense

The course of inflation, bringing heavier taxes and record high interest rates, has aggravated a long-standing inequity that exists between government-owned or subsidized electric systems and investor-owned companies in the same business. The cost of capital and taxes today take 46.2 cents of every revenue dollar earned by investor-owned electric companies. Federal electric systems by contrast pay only 25.6 cents; cooperatives, 10.3 cents; state and local utility systems only 12.3 cents of each revenue dollar.

Seventy-eight per cent of the people in the U.S. buy electric energy from investor-owned companies. They must pay rates which include the major costs of taxes and interest. An executive of one of the nation's major investor-owned electric systems points out that it is highly unfair for 22 per cent of the electric customers of the United States who are served by government systems to pay as little as one third to one fourth as much in their rates to cover capital costs, and from only one fifth to one seventh as much to cover tax costs as is paid by the 78 per cent served by investor-owned companies. Government electric systems would have to boost their rates to increase revenues from 35 to 60 per cent if they were required to pay interest rates and taxes comparable to private electric companies.

As the utility spokesman points out, "The furnishing of electric energy to the public is not a governmental function, but is rather a proprietary or business function." This being the case, he proposes that specific steps be taken to equalize the tax and interest burdens imposed on all consumers of electric power by requiring government systems to meet comparable capital and tax costs. It is estimated this would bring an annual gain of federal, state and local tax revenues in excess of $1.5 billion.

At this time, every level of government is in deep financial trouble. There is talk of wage and price control, and citizens are asked to pay surtaxes in addition to regular taxes already at unprecedented levels. In this situation, the common sense and urgency of equal financial treatment for government and investor-owned utilities is unquestionable.

The Decision Makers

Once again the power of the free market has been demonstrated. A major automobile company has discontinued production of what was, a few years ago, a popular, sporty car. Thus critics of the free market who claim that promotion and advertising by large firms can force unwanted products onto the public have once more been confounded by the real life marketplace. It happens every day and is far from a rarity in the automobile industry.

As The Wall Street Journal comments, "It's always a little sad to see a car nameplate disappear; some 3,000 have vanished during the industry's history. It's rather comforting, nonetheless, to be reminded once more that in U.S. markets it's still the consumer who makes the big decisions."

SENSING THE NEWS

AROUND THE U. S. CAPITOL

The spirit that animated the American colonists 193 years ago this July Fourth is rare in the contemporary world. The colonists on the Atlantic seaboard, when they decided in 1776 to declare their independence of Great Britain and form a republic, wanted to stand on their own feet. The majority of new nations, formed in the past World War II years, haven't had this desire. On the contrary, they expected other nations to bear their burdens and provide them with the financial means of development.

The most notable exception to those post-war patterns has been Rhodesia, which on June 20 held a constitutional referendum and voted to become a republic. Three and a half years ago, the Rhodesians declared their independence of Great Britain. They did not break their ties with the British Crown, however. Because the vast majority of educated Rhodesians are of British origin, and many of their leaders — including Prime Minister Ian Smith — fought bravely for Britain in World War II, they sought to retain ties to the motherland.

Repeatedly, the Rhodesian leadership met with Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain and other officials in London, trying to agree on constitutional arrangements satisfactory to both peoples and governments. The Rhodesian good will mattered for nothing, however, inasmuch as the socialist government of Great Britain was bent on appeasing the Afro-Asian extremists in the Commonwealth. These extremists would be satisfied with nothing less than the liquidation of independent Rhodesia. Finally, the Rhodesians lost patience, and decided their only alternative was to form a republic.

The British government, in its haste to bring down the Rhodesian government, imposed economic sanctions and enlisted other governments, including the Johnson administration, in resorting to means of injuring Rhodesia's economy.

The Rhodesians, like the American colonists after July 4, 1776, refused to bend their necks or abandon their fight for independence.

The Americans of almost two centuries ago found a good friend in France. The Rhodesians, in their struggle for economic survival, learned that several European nations were eager to participate in the country's economic growth. Thus Rhodesia has continued to receive foreign investment and has found markets for its goods. Because of Executive Orders issued by President Johnson, American free enterprise has not been permitted to participate in the economy of one of the few African countries with a stable and substantial economic future.

Ironically, the ban on trade with Rhodesia has caused the U.S. to import chrome ore — one of Rhodesia's resources — from Soviet Russia, a major enemy of freedom. In the eyes of Washington officialdom, it is better to deal with communist Russia than with anti-communist Rhodesia.

Many thoughtful British parliamentarians realize the folly of British policy towards Rhodesia. If the Conservative Party were returned to power tomorrow, sensible diplomatic and trade relations with Rhodesia would be established. But Prime Minister Wilson and the Labor Party are the victims of their socialist dogmas which deem it intolerable for educated men to direct the governmental affairs of an African nation with a large, undeveloped population.

It is time, however, that the United States government stop catering to the

Ten Years Ago:

July 8, 1959
A total of 141 children attended the first session of the annual summer school at Sierra Madre School Monday.

Children of Sierra Madre are getting some early lessons in understanding our neighbors south of the border in classes conducted by Phillip Mitchell in summer sessions now in progress at Sierra Madre School. Mr. Mitchell is teaching conversational Spanish to the children, using a book entitled "Rosita y Fanchito," which teaches children to count in Spanish, the names of all the colors, words for members of their families and many domestic animals, and words for many things in and about the home.

Lola Rudback flew over the Pole to Denmark and attended the wedding of her son, Tony. She won't be home until she's gotten a five-week peek at Europe's ancient real estate: Norway, Sweden, Holland, France and England.

Filched Felines? A rash of vanishing Siamese cats in the upper canyon area lately. Newcomers Bill and Judy Huber turned up minus "Suzy" kitten while moving into 678 Alta Vista Drive— (Although her mouser mate "Sam" is still around). Wayne and Len Harris — who've just moved out to Hidden Valley haven't been able to round up "Troilus" — nor can Tom Littlefield find "Solomon" Grundy." There is some speculation that during the summer slump the Mafia may be muscling in on Siamese cat-napping.
